'That they may have life, life in all its fullness' John 10:10

Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome back to the new academic year 2018/2019! I hope you have all had a very enjoyable, restful and happy summer break and were able to enjoy quality family time together during the last six weeks. Typically, the arrival of the summer holidays drove away the heatwave but, if you are like me, you will have enjoyed some more changeable weather and the chance to cool off!

It has been lovely to welcome the children back to school and find out all about their summer holiday adventures. They have all returned very happy and positive and the school has settled very quickly. We are looking forward to the exciting times ahead this year, and are also aware of some of the challenges we will be facing in the coming months.

As this is a short week, we are not publishing a full newsletter. However, I wanted to have the chance to say hello and welcome back, and there are also some important messages to share with you.

We will resume our usual newsletter next Thursday (13th September 2018), where I look forward to sharing our new Big Picture plan, that gives details of the school's priorities for the coming year, along with lots of other information about forthcoming dates and events. In response to your requests, we have returned to a published parent calendar, which will be available to you also with next week's newsletter.

Until then, I hope you will have an enjoyable and peaceful week ahead. I look forward to catching up with you personally in the coming days.

With every best wish,

Ian Doswell

Following new guidance all volunteers will need to be DBS checked with the school, when this has been completed they will then be able to help.
